

HGU Scholarship

Hebei GEO University provides a university scholarship for overseas students. The scholarship evaluation is based on the student's academic performance before and after entry and daily performance, according to the administrative regulation of the scholarship.

The scholarship is from CNY 4,000 to 10,000/year per person for undergraduate students and from CNY 8,000 to 18,000/year per person for postgraduate students. Students can apply for the scholarship upon arrival or at other set period. The scholarship is not applicable to exchange students and students with government or Confucius Institute scholarship.
